Each mission is a unique adventure, with its own set of challenges and rewards. You'll need to use your wits, your courage, and your trusty sonic screwdriver to survive. But be careful - these monsters are not to be underestimated.

The Daleks

The Daleks are one of the most iconic monsters in Doctor Who history. They are a race of cyborgs from the planet Skaro, and they are dedicated to the extermination of all non-Dalek life.

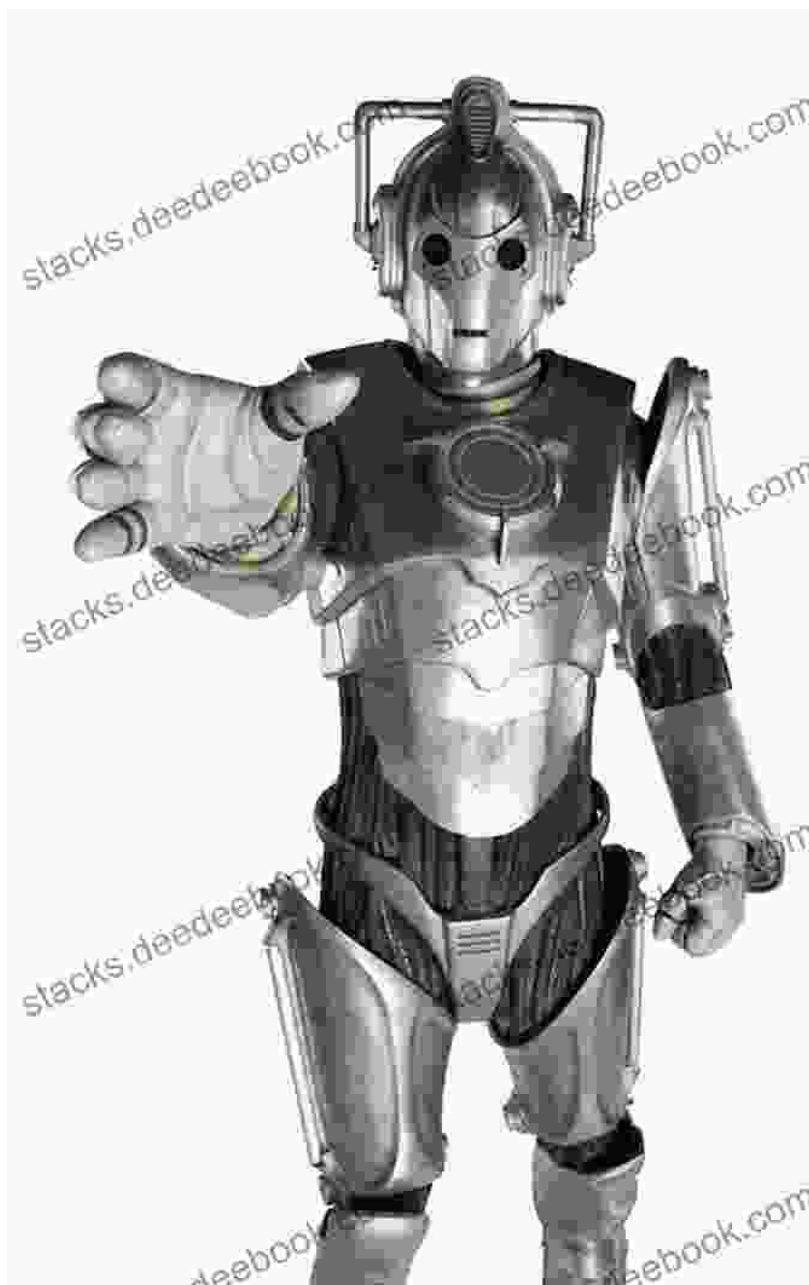

In the Monstrous Missions story "Dalek Invasion," you'll find yourself stranded on a planet that has been invaded by the Daleks. You'll need to use all of your skills to survive and escape.

The Cybermen

The Cybermen are another classic Doctor Who monster. They are a race of cyborgs who have replaced their organic parts with cybernetic implants.

In the Monstrous Missions story "Cyberman Uprising," you'll find yourself facing off against a group of Cybermen who are planning to take over the Earth. You'll need to use all of your cunning and strength to defeat them.

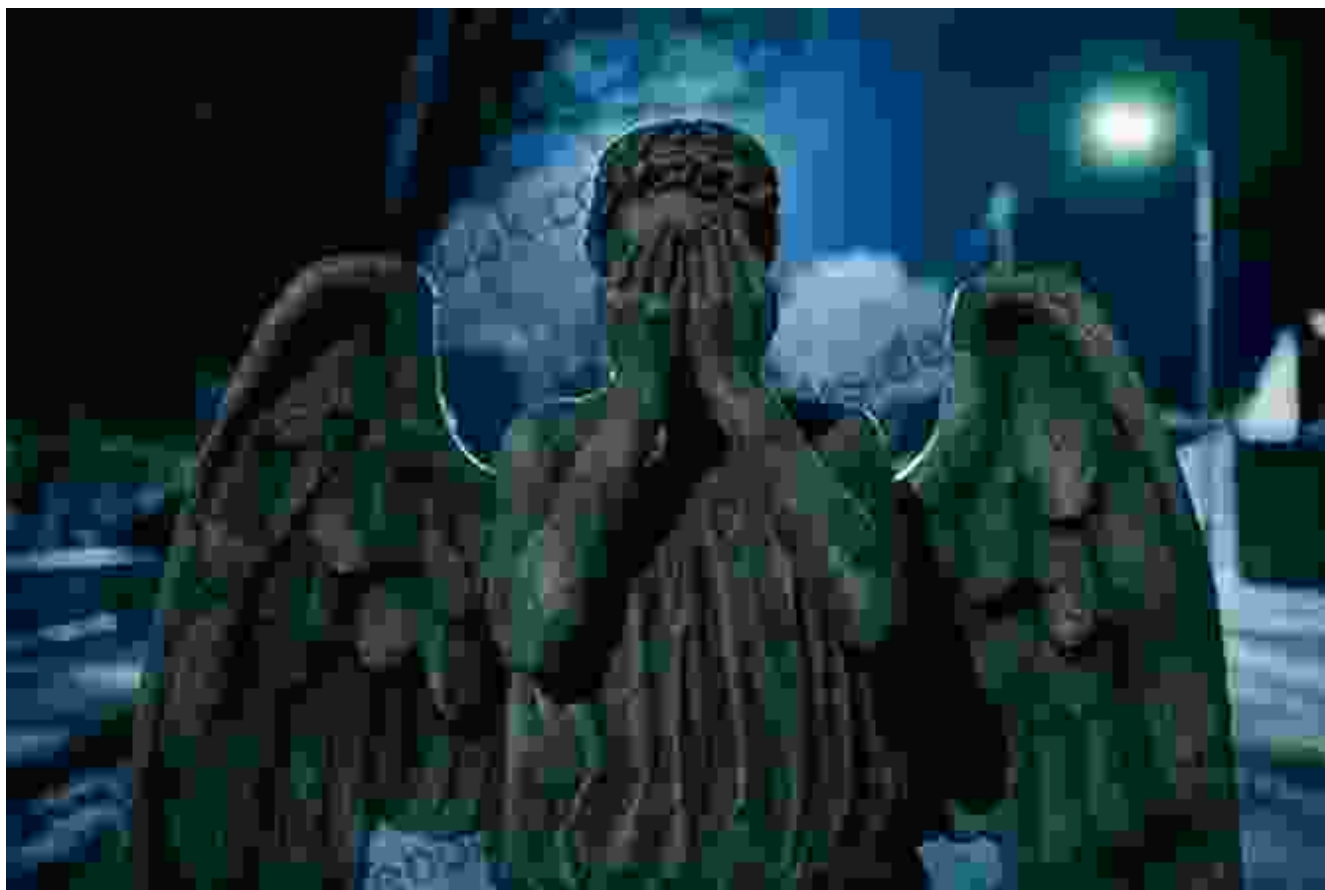

The Cybermen are another classic Doctor Who monster.

The Weeping Angels

The Weeping Angels are one of the most terrifying monsters in the Whoniverse. They are quantum-locked creatures that can only move when no one is looking at them.

In the Monstrous Missions story "Weeping Angel Ambush," you'll find yourself trapped in a room with a group of Weeping Angels. You'll need to use all of your ingenuity to escape before they turn you to stone.

Other Monstrous Missions

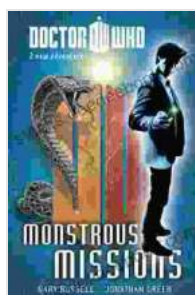

In addition to the Daleks, Cybermen, and Weeping Angels, Doctor Who Monstrous Missions also features stories featuring other terrifying monsters, such as:

- The Autons

- The Sea Devils
- The Zygons
- The Sontarans
- The Ice Warriors
- The Silurians
- The Ood
- The Vashta Nerada
- The Angels
- The Silence

Doctor Who Monstrous Missions is a great way to experience the excitement and adventure of Doctor Who. Whether you're a lifelong fan or a newcomer to the series, you're sure to find something to love in these interactive stories.
