Farmer Gail was a kind and hardworking woman who loved her animals. She had a small farm with a barn full of cows, a coop full of chickens, and a pigsty full of pigs. Farmer Gail took good care of her animals, and they were all happy and healthy.

One morning, Farmer Gail went out to the hen house to collect the eggs. But when she opened the door, she was shocked to find that all of her hens were gone! Farmer Gail was very worried. She didn't know what had happened to her hens, and she was afraid that they had been stolen.

Farmer Gail searched everywhere for her hens, but she couldn't find them. She asked her neighbors if they had seen her hens, but no one had.

Farmer Gail was starting to lose hope, but she refused to give up. She knew that she had to find her hens.

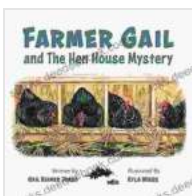

Farmer Gail decided to follow the tracks that the hens had left behind. She followed the tracks all the way to the edge of her property. There, she saw a hole in the fence. Farmer Gail realized that her hens had escaped through the hole.

Farmer Gail followed the tracks of her hens into the woods. She walked for hours, but she couldn't find them. Just when she was about to give up, she heard a faint clucking sound. Farmer Gail followed the sound and found her hens hiding in a thicket.

Farmer Gail was so happy to find her hens! She gathered them up and took them back to the hen house. Farmer Gail then patched the hole in the fence so that her hens couldn't escape again.

Farmer Gail was proud of herself for solving the mystery of the missing hens. She had shown courage, determination, and adventure. Farmer Gail was a true hero!
