Lineup

- Fela Kuti & The Egypt 80 Band (Nigeria)

Pioneer of Afrobeat, Fela Kuti's music is a powerful blend of traditional African rhythms and Western influences. His hypnotic grooves and politically charged lyrics have made him one of the most influential musicians in African history.

- Anoushka Shankar (India)

Sitar virtuoso and daughter of the legendary Ravi Shankar, Anoushka Shankar is known for her innovative approach to Indian classical music. Her captivating melodies and intricate compositions have earned her international acclaim.

- Buena Vista Social Club (Cuba)

A legendary group that helped popularize traditional Cuban music around the world. Their timeless songs, featuring lush harmonies and infectious rhythms, capture the essence of Cuba's vibrant musical heritage.

- Baaba Maal (Senegal)

A global music icon, Baaba Maal's music blends traditional Senegalese rhythms with elements of rock, pop, and world music. His energetic performances and socially conscious lyrics have earned him a devoted fan base worldwide.

- Tinariwen (Mali)

A nomadic band from the Sahara Desert, Tinariwen's music is a unique blend of traditional Tuareg melodies and modern Western instrumentation. Their hypnotic rhythms and haunting vocals have captivated listeners around the world.

- And many more!

The Roots Jam lineup features a diverse selection of artists from every corner of the globe. From rising stars to established legends, the festival offers a wide range of musical experiences that will appeal to all tastes.
