The Locker is a true crime podcast that investigates the disappearance of Lane Gonzales and Riley Vaslik, two Oklahoma teenagers who went missing in 2013. The podcast is hosted by journalist Aaron Scott, who uncovers new evidence and interviews key players in the case.

The Disappearance

On the evening of November 13, 2013, Lane Gonzales and Riley Vaslik left a party in Pryor, Oklahoma. They were last seen walking down a road together. Their car was found abandoned the next day, but there was no sign of the girls.

The disappearance of Gonzales and Vaslik sparked a massive search effort. Hundreds of volunteers and law enforcement officers scoured the area, but no trace of the girls was found.

The Investigation

The investigation into the disappearance of Gonzales and Vaslik has been hampered by a lack of evidence. There are no witnesses who saw the girls after they left the party, and there is no physical evidence to suggest what happened to them.

Despite the challenges, investigators have continued to work on the case. In 2019, a new lead emerged when a witness came forward with information about a possible suspect. The suspect has not been identified, but investigators are following up on the lead.

The Podcast

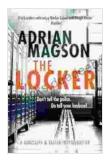

The Locker podcast investigates the disappearance of Gonzales and Vaslik in depth. Host Aaron Scott interviews key players in the case, including family members, friends, and law enforcement officers.

The podcast also uncovers new evidence that has not been previously reported. In one episode, Scott reveals that a witness saw the girls getting into a car with a man on the night they disappeared.

The Locker is a well-produced and informative podcast that sheds new light on the disappearance of Lane Gonzales and Riley Vaslik. The podcast is essential listening for anyone interested in true crime or missing persons cases.

The disappearance of Lane Gonzales and Riley Vaslik remains one of Oklahoma's most baffling unsolved mysteries. The Locker podcast has done an excellent job of investigating the case and uncovering new evidence. Hopefully, the podcast will help to bring closure to the families of Gonzales and Vaslik.
